

A REPORT ON CBSE SENIOR SECONDARY CAPACITY BUILDING PROGRAMME (CBP) FOR ENGLISH CORE
(SUBJECT CODE-301), NEW ACADEMIC SESSION 2019-20

By Hema Sharma, PGT English, KIS

A two-day Capacity Building Programme (CBP) was organized by the CBSE on 24.06.19 and 25.04.19 for the Teachers of English, teaching the recently revised Curriculum of English Core (Subject Code-301) in its Regional Office, Centre Of Excellence, Patparhganj, New Delhi, under the aegis of its training programme that facilitates and enhances the linguistic learning of its faculty. The timings were 0900 hours to 1630 hours. The workshop was well attended and well conducted, with around 40 teachers drawn from the leading schools of Delhi-NCR. Ms. Hema Sharma (PGT English) represented Kothari International School, at the learned congregation.

Mrs. Ruchi Sengar, a veteran of more than three decades of teaching and training experience, was the Resource Person of the Programme. A dynamic personality in her own right, Ms. Sengar brought in energy, enthusiasm and innovative skills into the programme, an essential pre-requisite to be a Language Teacher of note. The programme was spread over two days with exclusive focus on the READING & the WRITING Sections in the first half (Day 1) after which exclusive attention was shifted towards the teaching of the LITERATURE Section in the second half (Day 2).*

Various important aspects in the field of Language Learning & Training were zeroed upon, by way of their easy and effective implementation for the benefit of the growing learners. Ground breaking strategies like ‘Experiential Learning’; ‘Connection with a Direction Approach’; ‘Process more important than the Product’ etc were discussed by Ms. Sengar who asserted upon the fact that the LSRW Objectives (Listening, Speaking, Reading & Writing) had to be kept in mind while conducting a class. She also reminded her erudite audience about the significance of providing a year-round practice environment in classes for the Assessment of Speaking & Listening (ASL) through various fun-games and class-activities to generate as well as sustain student interest in this subject of skills. The Language Workshop was well received as Ms. Ruchi Sengar acquainted everyone with the skill of integrating the Reading and Writing Skills with ART as well as LITERATURE, a recent policy change brought in by the CBSE. The exhaustive session was finally shown a befitting end by a thunderous applause by all present there.

Ms. Anjali, Director, CoE, presented the certificates to all the participants.

