Ms. Dipti
Chawla

A workshop for Political Science was conducted by CBSE resource-person Ms. Neera Kohli and Director of Ecovisionnaire Mr Amit Arora on Saturday, 4 May 2019 at South Delhi Public School, New Delhi. KIS faculty Ms Dipti Chawla, PGT Political Science attended the workshop and got enriched.

To strengthen students' capacity for political analysis CBSE has made few changes in the pattern of Question Paper. It has also introduced Practical in Political Science. Before discussing about these changes, Ms Neera put emphasis on developing interest for Political Science among students using innovative and interesting pedagogies. Through different activities she reinforced the teaching community to inculcate certain values, such as sense of belongingness, morality and righteousness, among students. Meanwhile Mr Amit discussed and elaborated on the Blueprint of the Question Paper. He also informed about the objective of CBSE for making all these changes. Typology of questions and drafting of questions were discussed in detail.

Later they elaborated on the topics and methodology of Project work. Few topics were also suggested:

Role of Oil Prices in world Politics

South China Sea

Seria Crises

Venejuela Crises

Cold War 2

Overall it was a brainstorming session. Teachers were suggested to keep their spirits high and bring freshness to their subject by sharing their new ideas and activities.

On 4th May, 2019, Accountancy Workshop was conducted by CA. (Dr.) G. S. Grewal and Shri R. K. Khosla at Mayo School, Noida Expressway Noida attended by 164 teachers.

It was a very fruitful Workshop in which Changes in Syllabus, Question Paper Design were discussed in detail. Teachers took keen interest in Objective Type Questions. The queries raised by teachers were satisfactorily answered. Objective Type Questions and MCQs were also discussed. The Workshop that started at 9 am finished at 2 pm. Teachers took keen interest in MCQs.

Through the PPT CA (Dr.) G.S. Grewal explained the changes and the new implementations and how the topics can be made easy for the students at the initial level. He emphasized that if any issues or queries are taken up by students, such issues should be tackled by using and explaining the topic by notes and handouts.

It was extremely enriching session. The queries resolution was amazing where no query was left un replied. I am attaching few picture of the workshop.

Diplomathon
2019 – Conclave

G 6-12

Kothari International School, Noida, played proud host to the annual MUN, Model United Nations assembly on 18th and 19th May, 2019. After several years of active and successful participation in Diplomathon/MUN events, it was indeed a gratifying honour to participate as host school partner to 600 delegates from across 21 schools in the NCR region.

The various 19 committees like UNSC, NATO WTO, BRICS, SAARC, MARVEL, HARRY POTTER etc. then proceeded to assemble and discuss various international and national affairs. There were 17 agendas put up for discussion within the various assemblages.

The closing ceremony was held on 19th May 2019– Sunday and this helped round off the successful two day convention of the youth assembly. A mesmerizing dance performance was presented by the dancing divas of KIS. The Chief Guest for the day was Mr. Anil Swarup, retired Chief Secretary Education, MHRD, Govt. of India. He motivated the gathering with his encouraging and inspirational words. Distinguished delegates and members of the teams were given out certificates of participation and awards for Best Delegates, High Commendation, and Special Mention. Kothari International School announced the winner and the first runner up was DPS Gautam Budh Nagar.
