DIWALI ACTIVITY

Deepawali literally means “An array of light’ and we celebrate this festival all across India with immense splendour and grandeur. It not only illuminates people’s home but even hearts, marking the triumph of ‘Good over evil’. At KIS it is our incessant endeavour to pass on our cultural values and traditions to the children, and preparing them to become the torch bearers for the same value system for years ahead. On 21st October our keen learners put their hands together and created clay diyas and decorated it. Diwali involves the lighting of small clay lamps filled with oil to signify the triumph of good over evil. The oil in the diya symbolises the dirt in the human mind, such as greed, jealousy, hatred, etc. The cotton in the diya is symbolic of the self or soul. The diya presents light when the light is burnt by the wick. They thoroughly enjoyed the activity. The students felt elated when their own creations became the part of the Diwali decorations at home.

At KIS, it is our continuous endeavour to provide the best of education to our students. We, realising the importance of field trips, organised a field trip for our students on Wednesday 23rd October 2019. It was integrated to one of their themes ‘Clothes Around The World’ so they can gain hands on experience for better understanding of the concept. This trip facilitated them with sensory exposure to different kinds of fabrics and the entire process of turning these fabrics into beautiful garments. Students not only observed the various methods like drafting, cutting, embroidering, stitching and accessorising a garment but they also could relate to the dresses they wear. They had an experience of how designing is done, how different people are involved in turning a fabric into a garment and what kind of machines help in a full garment stitching. It was overall a great learning imprinted on our learner’s little minds along with fun and frolic added to it.
