1.	22/01/20	Nukkad Natak Grades 6 th and 7 th	Kothari International School is proud to announce that the students of Grades 6 and 7 presented an Inter House Nukkad Natak and spread awareness about the importance of adopting the sustainable development goals. The day commenced with the Lamp Lighting ceremony conducted by the activity coordinator, Ms. Sakshi Seth along with the judges, Ms. Deepti Chawla and Ms. Garima Joshi , and parents. Before the start of the competition, the rules and division of marks were discussed. Competitive spirit and preparedness was evidently visible among the four houses: Nishchay, Shakti, Siddhant and Vishwas. The audience too was very enthusiastic to witness the event. The show culminated in a beautiful amalgam of both Bharatnatyam and Kathak. After the dance, came the long awaited results . All the houses performed excellently, but Vishwas took a lead by securing ‘Outstanding’ position, Shakti begged ‘Excellent’ position and Siddhant was declared ‘Good’, by the judges.
2	23/01/20	Assembly 7B	The day began with Class 7B completely geared up to present its month long hard work in the form of an assembly on SDG 7 ‘Clean and Affordable Energy’. It was an impeccable amalgamation of dance, thoughts, music, and mime. Through this assembly, the audience was apprised of the struggles faced by millions of people for not having access to water and electricity, which can be easily made available to them with some simple and doable techniques like water harvesting and installing solar panels. The news show organized by the students proved extremely useful in telling the audience how using clean and affordable energy is benefitting the climatic conditions of different countries, and how India is gearing up to achieve carbon neutrality. The demonstration of carpooling, cycling and installing solar panels during the dance show grabbed the eye balls. Viewers were motivated towards adopting these means to turn the horrendous future of adversities into a dreamlike possibility. The entire presentation was appreciated by one and all. The audience found it engaging, informative and a delight to watch. It must have triggered the young minds to transform their ways of living by bringing in the changes suggested.

The 71st Republic Day was celebrated by Kothari International School, Noida with solemnity and grandeur. To mark the importance of this day, a brief talk about the 'Constitution of India' was articulated by Ms. Garima Joshi. The gathering was treated with some spectacular musical feats like the patriotic prayer by students of grade 6 to 8, patriotic group song 'AeWatan, Watan.....' by grade 4&5 and a solo song performance by Bhavya Khosla of grade 9 NIOS Level-1. An air of patriotic fervour permeated the atmosphere with the last song 'Hum hongekamyab' which was sung by Ms. Pratima and Mr. Akshdeep along with the audience. Ms. Manju Gupta, the principal, in her invigorating speech reminded the students about the sacrifices of many. She also added and emphasized the necessity to bring in change, importance to accept it as India is also on the cusp of change, to keep pace with the world for a better tomorrow. The assembly was culminated by singing the school song and the National Anthem.

A student delegate of Kothari International School witnessed a memorable congregation of esteemed policy makers, politicians and educationist in a close dialogue with the Father of Our Nation about his interventions on the future of education. The opening remarks to the gathering were delivered by Professor JS Rajput followed by an enthralling speech by Chief Guest Hon'ble Minister of HRD Shri Ramesh Pokhriyal. His rhetoric reinforced the Gandhian values of Satya, Fearlessness and Kindness which has enabled India to embark on its mission of creating a Vasudhakutumba- means whole world is a family. The panel of speakers included Dr Karan Singh former chairman of MGIEP UNESCO and Member of Rajya Sabha, Ms Najad Vallaud- Belkacem, former minister of education in France and Mr Simon Kuany, Author and Associate Project Officer, UNESCO MGIEP. The deliberation provided a critical commentary on the present educational system, suitable measures to upgrade it and prepare students to evolve as truly critical citizens of a country.
