

Ja-tek Global Public Speaking Contest

Another feather added in the cap of Kothari international school on 4th June when the children of Grade 9th and 10th -Aadit Jain, Rishik Bansal, Suhani Pathak, Aastha Bhatnagar, Mishti Oberoi, Agastya Joshi participated in an international contest based on the theme of COVID 19 Lockdown.

The children had to present their narrative as a short video story, like a mini TED-Talk, about living under quarantine. Student weaved their own stories with a variety of emotions. It was amazing to watch the students performing with full confidence and fortitude live in front of a video audience that was witnessing the contest from different parts of the world: Australia, U.K, China, USA and India.

The organizing committee and board of mentors for tek talk had commenced the contest being judged by the ace judges who are highly competent in their own fields. Mr. Kenneth Cain, Mr. Ken Petersen, Ms. Dina Diamond, Mr. Howard Sackstein, Mr. Jim Fyfe, Ms. Pooja and Ms. Christine Han along with Our Principal- Ms. Manju Gupta, Vice Principal- Ms. Neerja Chathly were the honourable judges.

Suhani Pathak and Agastya Joshi were announced as the joint winner of the competition and all the other participants were given high appreciation.

To sum up, it was an exhilarating experience for the students and their in-house mentors Ms. Tuhina Rathi and Ms. Namita De from the beginning of the preparation till the culmination.

As rightly said by Ken Griffey Sr. and Ken Griffey Jr.

Quote "When you have fun, it changes all the pressure into pleasure." unquote.

